BANDINFO

If you haven't heard of TYLER LEADS yet, you should check them out as soon as possible. For over 5 years this sweaty neckcrusher has been on the road in the German rock and metal scene and in Europe.

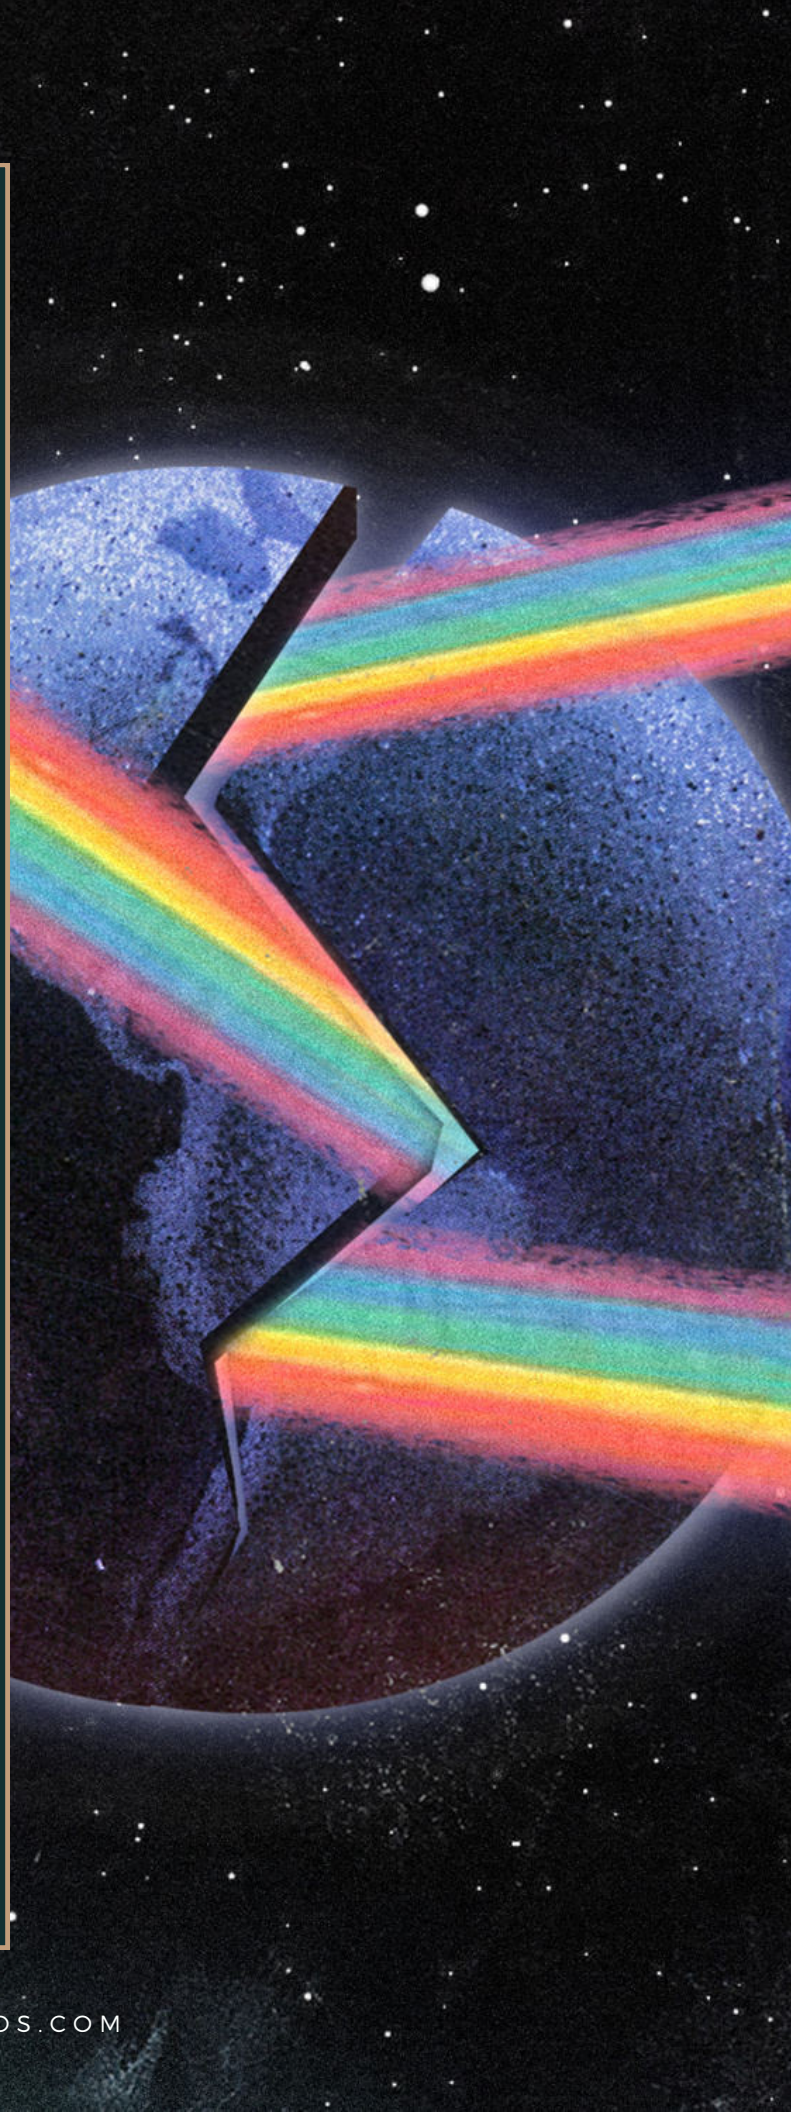

HANK VON HELL, UGLY KID JOE, THUNDERMOTHER, SATAN. All bands that have already been allowed on stage after the guys.

The guys are a live spectacle! At cult festivals like HELLFEST(Fr), ROCKHARD or DONG OPEN AIR the beer-heavy audience was seduced by the cocaine obelisks from the tents into the pit.

If you can believe the scene press, the live energy bunch managed to capture their clapping groove on record. So with the STAY UGLY EP(2017) and the current album PLANETARY MOVEMENT(2022) you can torch a passionate heavy rock inferno in your living room at home.

The love of their fans is the fuel in the engine of the riff machine TYLER LEADS. PLANETARY MOVEMENT was a wish child and was conceived by the band and fans with the help of a crowdfunding campaign. This gave the world 10 new songs including music videos.

A delirious adventure which lets the listener feel the familiar, beer-swilling embrace of a good acquaintance and catapults him into interstellar spheres in the next moment. The perfect evening program to ennoble the waiting time until the next gig of the five-piece.

BURNYOUREARS

(...) In short - TYLER LEADS are a lot of fun, the space in front of the stage is full and the weather is finally playing along ... that's exactly how it has to be to create a festival atmosphere. (...)

MyRevelations

(...) As if Bon Scott had a grandson nobody knows about, the ass-kicking mixture (...) rocked the house (...)

METAL.DE

TYLER LEADS open the second festival day in pretty windy weather. Appearances at smaller events like the Dong Open Air not only attracted the notoriously curious, but also their not so small fan base. That's perfectly understandable, because their casually grooving hard rock is so contagious.

(...)

There were choirs chanting the band's name and demanding encores.

DEAF FOREVER

"(...) they deliver a show that contains more sports program in 30 minutes than many complete in a month.

The youngsters are extremely professional and in top shape with their instruments, (...)

METAL HEADS

(...) You could tell immediately the colleagues were really up for it and are in their element on stage. Everything was right, from the optics to the moves and of course the sound.

(...) Hard/Heavy Rock at its finest is always a pleasure and was delivered (...)

METAL HEADS

(...) Tyler Leads just put you in a good mood (...)"

(...) The attention to detail can be heard and felt after each newly counted bar. (...)

METALUNDERGROUND

(...) TYLER LEADS earn the listener's favor without much frills. Would even go so far as to give the guys an innovation award. The music, full of gripping conviction and a refreshing sound, speaks for the quality and sophistication with which the guys approached the work. (...)

METAL1

(...) TYLER LEADS definitely deserve attention and reach! (...)

POWERMETAL

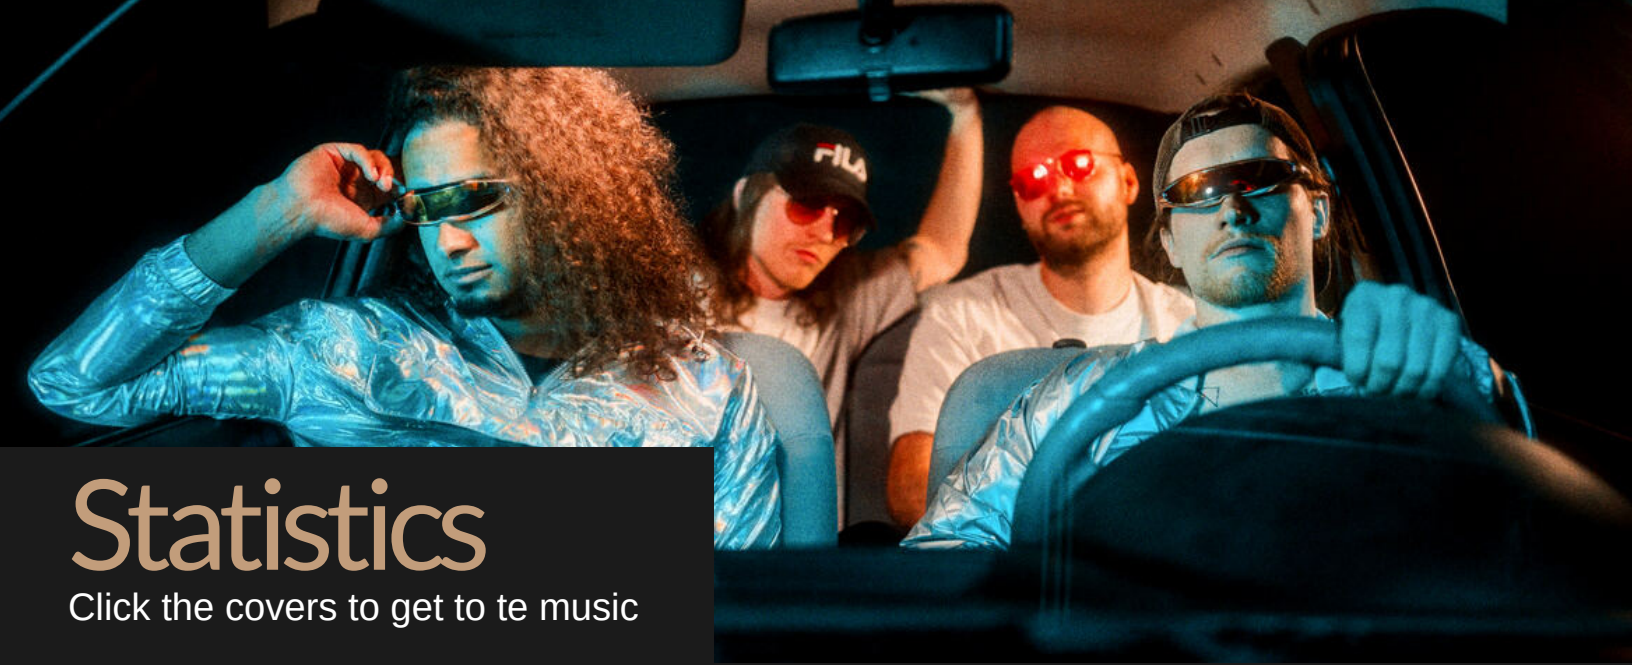

(...) Sometimes the songs, including their crisp melodies, these great vocal parts, the lyrics, which are remarkable for a debut, and the buck-strong groove, are almost addictive. (...)

POWERMETAL

(...) The band creates its own musical universe, where everyone is welcome. (...)

BLEEDING4METAL

(...) With "Planetary Movement" TYLER LEADS have presented a remarkable and varied debut, which should definitely make people listen (...)
